OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY TO ANNOUNCE HISTORIC GIFT ON TUESDAY

Gift Represents Largest Ever Cash Gift to Support a Collegiate Athletic Program in the History of the NCAA

What: Substantial Leadership Gift Announcement - Historic in Scope and Size
When: Tuesday, January 10, 2006, at 11 a.m.
Where: Varsity Club Room - Second Floor, Football Complex Inside the Athletic Center at Gallagher Iba Arena

Special Note: For the national and regional media, the announcement will be carried live around the world over the Internet at — www.okstate.com. For additional information and to arrange interviews, contact the OSU media representatives listed below.

Background

In what is characterized as the “single largest donation” ever to an NCAA collegiate athletic program, Oklahoma State University officials are preparing to announce a record-setting gift which, in terms of scope and magnitude, will propel Oklahoma State’s ambitious vision to build a world class athletic complex unrivaled in stature and size closer to reality. Details on the gift and its impact to elevate Oklahoma State’s tradition-rich athletic program to a new level of national prominence and competitiveness in all sports will be presented at the press announcement.

Contacts: Gary Shutt, Director, Communications - OSU (405) 744-6260; or Steve Buzzard, Associate Athletics Director - Media Relations (405) 744-7714

— OSU —

Third parties are permitted to post this information verbatim provided they print the complete dateline, including the link to the official athletics site of Oklahoma State University.